HERDIN
RESEARCH DATABASE AWARD

This contest is open to all institutions generating health researches.

Content

Health-related researches undertaken by the institution. Materials can include theses, dissertations, research reports, research projects, journal articles, proceedings, laws , book of abstracts and books.

Quality of data entry

Each record uploaded must comply with the HERDIN NeON database standards

Database usage

Information on the database availability must be disseminated and used by the institution and its networks. A user statistics must be verifiable.

Judging

A board of judges will evaluate the database in July 2014.

Awarding

The winner/s for the research database award will be announced during the 8th PNHRS week celebration in Cebu City.

Prizes

❖ Cash award of Php 50,000 which can be used in improving the institutional database content.

❖ Travel grant for three persons to the 8th Philippine National Health Research System Week in Cebu in August 2014

Citeria for Judging

Inclusion criteria

* ❖ Institution willing to organize and share health research outputs
* ❖ Institution using HERDIN-NEON system template

Database content (40%)

* ❖ Researches must be health related done in, or about, the Philippines or authored by a Filipino
* ❖ At least 100 researches undertaken by the institution, subject to quality check
* ❖ HERDIN NeON system compliant
* ❖ Access to full-text articles e.g link, downloadable, print or document delivery service etc.

Database updated regularly (20%)

* ❖ Institution must update content as evidenced by monthly uploading of new records

Database usage (40%)

* ❖ Information on the database availability is disseminated in the organization

* ❖ Institution and its networks use the database as evidenced by user statistics